

Working with Distributors and Agents:

the law and other challenges

Tuesday, 2nd December, 2014

4pm - 6pm

UKFT, 3 Queen Square, Bloomsbury, London, WC1N 3AR

Created specifically for fashion, accessory, and textile businesses in the UK, this seminar will give you the critical legal information you need to work with distributors and agents both in the UK and overseas.

Stephen Sidkin and members of his team from fashion law specialists Fox Williams LLP (www.fashionlaw.co.uk) will explain what your legal obligations are, how you can protect yourself, and what to do if things go wrong.

Having worked in menswear, Stephen is an avid believer in the power of brands and advises many fashion suppliers and distributors and principals and agents. Stephen has been publicly recognised as a leading authority on distributorship and agency law, in particular the Commercial Agents Regulations. To find out more visit Fox Williams' specialist website dedicated to agency law: www.agentlaw.co.uk.

Specific topics:

1. Getting the agreement right
2. Taking back exclusive rights from distributors
3. Going international – what to watch out for Speakers :

Stephen Sidkin, Partner, Fox Williams LLP

Emma Roake, Senior Associate, Fox Williams LLP

Rachel Cook, Associate, Fox Williams LLP

After the seminar, you will have the opportunity to discuss your own issues with the speakers.
